

NEW YORK FILM ACADEMY

COLLEGE OF VISUAL AND PERFORMING ARTS

Dear Marymount California University Students,

The faculty and staff at New York Film Academy \(NYFA\) are saddened to hear about the impending closure of Marymount California University. In response to these circumstances, NYFA would like to offer MCU students the ability to complete their degrees at NYFA, a WASC-accredited freestanding visual and performing arts college located in nearby Burbank, CA.

In particular, for MCU students pursuing their BS in Digital Communication Media degree, we are working with your department to identify the most closely related NYFA programs that can help you transition and complete your degree.

We will work hard to find solutions for each individual student, including:

- Waiving our application fee
- Creating affordable academic plans, including institutional aid/scholarships
- No letters of recommendation required
- No creative portfolio required
- Supportive financial aid, veterans, and international student service staff.
